

College bound?

Dear name,

If you are planning to go to college then you'll probably want to take Tier 3.

You can download the Syllabus at my website: <https://craighane.com/>

This will help prepare you for some tests you might take like the SAT or the ACT.

If you're not interested in science or engineering then you probably won't use some of the math you're learning here that you do need for the tests.

I explained this in Pt 5 of the How and Why Public School Math is Destroying the USA book.

If you are interested in STEM the next email will be the most important one in this series for you!

Onward,
