“Tribe” = = “Army”

TMT's 1st Mission is to Improve the Life of a TMT Member

What is Your Life is full of? “Problems and Opportunities”

Which Result in what? “Your Actions, which have Consequences”.

“Wisdom” is understanding what the Consequences of these Actions will be so that a TMT Member can choose the Actions which will yield an Optimal Life in the Member's Environment, as defined by the TMT Member.

A TMT Member will receive both Wisdom and Tools to lead an Optimal Life given the Circumstances of the other Tribes the TMT Member is also a Member of.

To be a TMT Member one must follow the Rules of the TMT,

“Be Helpful and Honest to all other TMT Members!”.

OK, What is Tribalism? . . .

A “Tribe” is a group of Sapiens which live with a set of Beliefs and Rules of Behaviors. Some are written and some are just “understood”. If a Member violates one of these Behaviors the Member can be expelled from the Tribe.

Sapiens are organized into Tribes, very small, small, medium, large, and very large, and often overlapping. Most small Tribes are contained in a Larger Tribe.

A Sapien will be a Member of many Tribes usually with a Core Tribe of immediate Family and Friends. This will evolve and change over time since Members come and go for various reasons.

You can often be a visitor of a Tribe, if you respect its Behaviors.

Unfortunately, some Tribes hate other Tribes and try to harm or destroy each other. Wars! Some large, some small. Most Wars harm both Tribes.

“History” is just stories of such Tribal Actions, usually “fiction” told by the “winning” Tribes.

One great semi-fictional story which demonstrates this in extreme conditions is King Rat, by James Clavell. Les Miserables by Victor Hugo is another.

Of course, the Bible and Koran are other great Stories. Fictional, or not?

Mark Twain also has some great stories. What are Your favorite stories?
